

Powering European Industry[®]

The event

Powering European Industry, takes place over 24 hours on 28-29 October in Sønderborg, Denmark. It brings together leading European industry executives, policy makers, organizations and thought leaders to proactively address the twin challenges of European competitiveness and the clean energy transition at the center of a European industrial strategy.

Programme

Monday 28 October

14.00-16.00 Site visits: Industry in pursuit of carbon neutrality

Gain first-hand insights from companies embracing the green energy transition, striving for enhanced competitiveness through a decreased carbon footprint.

16.30-18.30 CEO Roundtable

European industry CEO's will join this high-level discussion for personal exchanges and interaction with leading analysts and political decision makers.

19.00-21.00 Welcome Reception

Tuesday 29 October

08.30-09.30 Breakfast roundtable discussion

Accelerating the green energy transition in Europe.

10.00-14.00 MAIN CONFERENCE: Powering European Industry

Keynote speakers
Dialogue panels
Roundtable debates
Closing remark and summary

14.00-16.00 Site visits: Industry in pursuit of carbon neutrality

Stay connected with the event's website for updates and additional information about the programme, to be released as the event date approaches.